

Sanitary bag dispenser stainless steel (paper)

A washroom has an important function. That is especially true for female guests. They use the room for a moment of freshening up or for changing their sanitary napkins. And therefore special sanitation is necessary.† You are ready for the arrival of your female guests with this subtle sanitary bag dispenser. This Dutch Bins stainless steel sanitary bag dispenser is a typical example of subtle design with practical application. The simple stainless steel exterior has a special anti-fingerprint coating, which always guarantees a hygienic look. Because of the open top the bags can be put in the dispenser quickly, and, moreover, they can easily be removed. Do you really like to meet the needs of your female guests? Ask now for the quote!
